

ANNOUNCING A NEW CHILDREN'S PICTURE BOOK

Available on National Shrimp Day, May 10, 2013

Three Little Shrimp

Written by J. Steven Spires
Illustrated by Jonathan Caron

Published by Inspired Books Publishing, c 2013
112 N. Dabney Drive
Slidell, LA 70458
985 288-5535
www.inspiredbookspublishing.com

Hardcover, ISBN 978 0 9858469 0 9
Paperback, ISBN 978 0 9858469 1 6
Ages 4 -10, PreS - Grade 3

One fine day a troop of shrimp head off to the open sea. On their way three little shrimp, mesmerized by the wonders they see, decide to swim away from the safety of the group to explore their surroundings.

Lurking unseen in the waters where the young shrimp are swimming are a family of egrets, a redfish, a sea turtle and an old fisherman. Each of them watch as the naïve little shrimp paddle right in their path. Each of them hope the shrimp will be the main course on their dinner menu. A surprise ending is served up as these hunters find the young prawns slip through their grasp every time.

Set in coastal waters, Three Little Shrimp tells a tale of childhood wonder amidst a backdrop of lurking danger. The story follows the three little shrimp as they pursue their curiosity and swim from one adventure to another without realizing the dangers around them.

Biography

J. Steven Spires or “Steve” is a teacher and, recently, a new children’s book author. As a writing teacher, he is known to make up stories on the spur of the moment to encourage his young writers to be more creative in their own writings.

Steve is a member of the SCBWI (Society of Children’s Book Writers and Illustrators). Three Little Shrimp is his first published work.

Steve and his wife, Eve, reside in Slidell, LA with their five children.

For additional information, contact Laura at:

laura@jstevenspires.com or visit his website at www.jstevenspires.com for free activities, printouts, teacher’s guides, etc.