Mom's Choice Award of Excellence
Family Choice Award

THREE LITTLE SHRIMP is a brand new, award winning children's picture book written by a local St. Tammany Parish elementary teacher, J. Steven Spires, and illustrated by a talented high school student, Jonathan Caron.

As part of our desire to share this incredible story with families in your community, we have put together a presentation that not only entertains children, but engages their minds in learning more about shrimp and their habitat.

Our presentation at schools, libraries, hospitals and other public facilities includes the following highlights:

- ⇒ Children's book author, J. Steven Spires, is the presenter/ story teller.
- ⇒ A 45-50 minute PowerPoint presentation on a 120 inch HD screen.
- ⇒ A reading of the new children's picture book, THREE LITTLE SHRIMP, with an integrated science lesson on prey and predator.
- ⇒ Student engagement through pre-selected participants, as well as, audience participation.
- ⇒ At the end of the presentation, an original song written by the author entitled "Three Little Shrimp" will be sung while the "Shrimpettes" and teach the children the "Shrimp Dance."
- ⇒ A book signing follows the presentation allowing children and parents to "meet and greet" author Steve Spires and the Shrimpette team.
